

Pre-K Technology Standards

- Able to use the keyboard effectively. This includes, but not limited to:
 - Recognize certain letters and numbers,
 - Recognize the space bar,
 - and able to use the left and right arrow keys.
- Able to maneuver the mouse proficiently. This includes, but not limited to:
 - Understand the usage of the left mouse button; understand the difference between single and double clicking.
 - Understand how to drag objects from point A to point B on the screen using the mouse.
- Able to use some software applications, with supervision, including:
 - Limited features in Microsoft Word,
 - Microsoft Paint,
 - and Educational software games geared for pre-K level.
- Able to login/log off the computer.
 - All pre-K students will use a standard PK login account.
 - Students will be able to perform the ctrl->alt->delete sequence to obtain the initial login window.
 - Students will be able to perform the steps to obtain the log-off window (green-bar->orange key->logoff box).